minutes per person? Senator Epke.

SENATOR EPKE: Mr. President and fellow members, I don't see why we've got to change the rules just because we've got a night meeting. Let's go ahead just the way we always have. This amending the rules at a specific time, I don't think it makes any sense. Let's....I would amend this so we can go ahead and operate under the same rules we have before.

PRESIDENT: Nope, either vote it up or down, can't take any more motions on it, Senator Epke. Senator Skarda, back to you.

SENATOR SKARDA: Mr. President, this is like washing your feet with your sox on. Let's proceed as we've been going all session irregardless of what the outcome of it is. I'm against the proposal to limit anytime.

PRESIDENT: All right, vote it up or down. Senator Kime.

SENATOR KIME: Mr. Chairman, I move that we adjourn at ten o'clock.

PRESIDENT: Nope. Oh, the motion to adjourn is in order. Until ten o'clock when, sir. You mean ten o'clock tonight or ten o'clock tomorrow?

SENATOR KIME: Ten o'clock tonight.

PRESIDENT: Ten o'clock tonight. All right, the motion to adjourn is until ten o'clock tonight.

SENATOR PROUD: Is the motion to amend that in order?

PRESIDENT: Nope. Now, wait a minute what we have here. Senator Kime. Senator Kime, restate your motion.

SENATOR KIME: At ten o'clock tonight.

PRESIDENT: I think you can move to adjourn, Senator Kime, but I don't think you can move to adjourn until 10:00 o'clock tonight. I'm not going to accept your motion, I'm sorry, sir. All right now, let's try it. Senator Keyes. I still have lights on. Gentlemen, may I have your attention, please. As long as I still have lights on and there are people that have indicated that they want to debate, I think that those are within the rules of the Legislature and that's the way we're going to conduct the meeting. Now, Senator Skarda, are you all through discussing the issue? If you are, you're going to have to turn your light off in order to let me know what's going on here. Senator Whitney, Senator Whitney is now closing then on his motion to amend the motion to suspend the rules and limit the debate to three minutes. Senator Whitney is closing.

SENATOR WHITNEY: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw and then I presume that what Senator Maresh means is, you still have the right to speak two different times for five minutes each. I would ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion.

PRESIDENT: Senator Whitney is asking unanimous consent to withdraw his motion. Are there any objections? Hearing none, so ordered. The amendment is withdrawn. Now, we're back
